

Grand Master Dr Stephen Skinner

Golden Hoard, Singapore

Grand Master Skinner wrote the first English book on feng shui in the 20th century, the Living Earth Manual of Feng Shui. This book first brought Feng Shui to the attention of the Western world. In 1998 he launched the Feng Shui for Modern Living monthly magazine. Its first issue sold 121,000 copies, more than Elle Décor or Wallpaper magazines in the UK. With distribution in 41 countries, this magazine helped popularise Feng Shui around the world. He even produced a Chinese language edition in Taipei. In 1999 he launched the 'London International Feng Shui Conference,' the largest Feng Shui conference ever held in UK/Europe. In 2004, he was part of the Committee who founded the International Feng Shui Association (IFSA) in Singapore.

Grand Master Skinner has published more than a dozen books on Feng Shui, including Advanced Flying Star Feng Shui, Guide to the Feng Shui Compass, Feng Shui Before & After, and the beautiful Feng Shui Style.

He has also published four translations of Feng Shui classics: The Water Dragon, The Original Eight Mansions Formula, Key San He Feng Shui Formulas and The Mountain Dragon. In October 2015, the title of Grand Master was conferred on Stephen at the 12th Annual Convention of the International Feng Shui Association in Shanghai. He is the author of over 46 books that have been translated into more than 20 different languages.

Grand Master Skinner lives in Singapore, where he researches, writes and consults on Feng Shui.
